IN MEMORIAM.

ARCHIBALD—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Albert Ernest, who departed this life on June 3, 1902, at Johannesburg, South Africa.

The news came sudden—it was so hard, it makes us weep and sigh.

And, oh! it is so hard to think we could not say good-bye.

He has gone like a flower cut down in its bloom, From the sunshine of life to the shade of the tomb:

But death cannot sever the chains of our love, Or steal the fond hope we shall meet him above; No, we do not forget him; we loved him too dearly

dearly
For his memory to fade from our hearts like a dream;
The lips need not speak when our hearts mourn
sincerely,
And our thoughts often rest where they cannot be seen

—Inserted by his loving mother, brothers, and sisters.

MANTOVA.—In sad and loving remembrance of our dear Myra, who died at the Perth Hospital on June 3, 1902, aged 17 years.

Oh! had we been there in that hour of death,
To have caught the last gasp of her parting breath;

Her last faint whisper we might have heard,
And breathed in her ear one parting word, "Fare well."

Also in sad and loving memory of our dear little Adele who died at her parents' residence on May 2, 1902, aged 13 years.

There are hours of bitter anguish,
When the tears refuse to fall;
But that parting with our loved ones
Was the bitterest of them all.

—Inserted by their sorrowing parents.

MANTOVA.—In loving memory of our dear sister
Myra, who died at Perth on June 3, 1902, aged 17 years; also our dear sister, Adele,
who died on May 2, 1902, aged 13 years.

—Inserted by their sister and brother-in-law,
M. and A. Pilgrim

OLIVER.—In loving remembrance of our dear son, William Carne Oliver, who died at Moroopna, Victoria, June 3, 1903 (late of the West Australian Bank, Kalgoorlie).

—Inserted by F. and E. G. Oliver, Williams, W.A.
